Unite

Unity,

One of the most attributes in a community,

It is everyone's duty,

For if done right it has tremendous beauty.

Together we are strong,

And together we can cross a minefield no matter how long,

It is through unity we create delights such as songs,

And it is through unity we can right all our wrongs.

It is our duty, to unite

For with just one, we can win no fight,

And together we can turn on the light,

To shine over all of life's sorrow plights.

No matter how awkward it may seem,

Go outside and get together and form a team,

For without a team, challenges become many,

And life already has challenges, plenty.
