PEACE

Peace can be a hard thing to achieve.
What it takes to achieve it can be hard to believe.

With war and anger all over the world.
The concept of peace might feel a bit old.

But peace doesn't have to be difficult you see,
Because peace is inside you so let it be free.

Just stop and listen to the beat of your heart.
Listen to the whole world around you, now that's a start.

So let's calm down our anger and let our wars cease,
Because if there's one thing that's beautiful, it's the feeling of
